Description

Betaware Ltd was founded on 1st of May 2012 on International Workers' Day. Complex IT solutions, mobile apps and online games lie at the heart of our company. We consider that our primary mission is to build high-quality, yet reasonably priced software solutions whose purpose is to contribute to our clients' business excellence. Our team is our strength and satisfied client is a goal we all share. A productive and friendly work environment can be very motivating, so we try to keep our employees happy and driven. Their proactive and productive attitude results in more successful projects. Apart from technical knowledge, it is important to us that potential new members of our team have other skills too, like creativity, independence, proactive attitude and communication skills.
